Congress alone can declare war.

Why did the Republicans keep out of their Campaign Book the text of the League of Nations? Afraid of it?

If Senator Harding was a "hearse driver" in April, he'll probably reach the cemetery about Nov. 2.

If anyone knows of one sane and sensible reason for voting for Senator Harding, vote for him, of course.

"Three Ball Art."—Everyone might of known that it was three ball 'something' or the Kansas City Star wouldn't be supporting him.

If Governor Cox is elected president of the United States, it will be a 100% American victory. The hyphenates to a man, are supporting Senator Harding.

How many of you have read the text of the League of Nations? We venture the assertion that not one in a thousand who are opposed to "going in" have read it.

Cheap printing reminds one of the story of the woman who asked the grocer: "How much are eggs today?" "Sixty cents." "How much for cracked eggs?" "Nineteen cents." "Crack me a dozen."—Ex.

Try as they will, the great majority of the Republican party cannot work up any enthusiasm over their candidate, Senator Harding. They know too well that he is without the "stuff" of which presidents are made.

"There are 81,000 reasons why the people of America will vote for a League of Nations to preserve peace and prevent war; they are your 81,000 sons and brothers and husbands who fought and died in France and Flanders to make an end of war. We must not break faith with those who died."—Governor Cox

"No Hearse Driver Wanted." The Kansas City Star of April 29, 1920, had this to say of Senator Harding: "A presidential candidate who can make no better showing in his home state than Senator Harding made in Ohio is obviously not a man who will cause a stampede in his direction in the election. It is a fairly safe guess that the Republican convention will not pick a hearse driver for the presidential race.

And the "hearse driver" was nominated.

Harding's Stand!

The paramount issue in this campaign being Republican victory; such victory being threatened in the first place by Hiram Johnson's club; such victory being threatened in the second place by Democratic prestige that would follow from the acceptance of the Treaty and the League; such victory being threatened by discontent among Republicans who are convinced that national honor and duty call for the League; now, therefore, I, Warren G. Harding, feels it necessary to declare that provided I am allowed to keep Hiram Johnson quiet till election day, and provided that I am allowed to reject the League of Nations formulated under a Democratic administration, I will, when elected President, be perfectly open to reason on this subject of the League.—Senator Harding's stand on the League of Nations as paraphrased by the New York Evening Post.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

This remedy is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to all parts of the United States and to many foreign countries. This alone is enough to convince one that it is medicine of more than ordinary merit. Give it a trial and you will find this to be the case.

Million Dollar Autumn Days.

Each warm and sunny September of October day has been worth a million dollars to the ripening of Missouri corn. For each day that Missouri has a generally killing frost before October 15th it will have cost Missouri farmers five million dollars per day.

An Agreeable Surprise.

"About three years ago when I suffered from a severe cold on my lungs and coughed most of the time night and day, I tried a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was surprised at the promptness with which it gave me relief," writes Mrs. James Brown, Clark Mills, N. Y. Many another has been surprised and pleased with the prompt relief afforded by this remedy.

Two U. of M. Men Chosen For Oxford.

The University of Missouri was more than fortunate in the recent selection of sixty-four Rhodes scholarships who are to go to England to study in 1921. Two of the sixty-four have been M. U. students. They are Corwin D. Edwards of Columbia, a 1920 graduate, and Joseph T. Hunt, a former student. Edwards was appointed to represent the state of Missouri, while Hunt was named from his home state, Arkansas. The appointments cover the entire United States and are made upon a basis of character, intellectual ability, and physical vigor.

Indigestion, Biliousness, Constipation.

Chamberlain's Tablets have restored to health and happiness hundreds who were afflicted with indigestion, biliousness and constipation. If you are troubled in this way give them a trial. You are certain to be pleased for they will benefit you.

Rev. Robert L. Cowan returned Wednesday night from Waverly, where he has been conducting revival services for the past ten days.

Constipation.

The beginning of almost every serious disorder is constipation. If you want to enjoy good health keep your bowels regular. This is best accomplished by proper diet and exercise, but sometimes a medicine is needed and when that is the case you will find Chamberlain's Tablets are excellent. They are mild and gentle in their action, easy and pleasant to take. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

MILE NOT ALWAYS A MILE

Four Different Lengths Are in Use in English-Speaking Countries—Swiss Mile Longest English-speaking countries have four different miles all in use—the ordinary mile of 5,280 feet, and the geographical or nautical mile of 6,080 feet, making a difference of about one-seventh between the two; the Scotch mile of 5,920 feet, and the Irish mile of 6,720 feet.

The German mile of today is 24,418 feet in length, more than four and a half times as long as our mile. The Dutch have a mile of 19,295 feet, the Danes one of 24,875 feet, and the Prussians one of 24,856 feet. The Swiss get more exercise in walking one of their miles than we get in walking five of ours, for their mile is 27,459 feet.

The Italian mile is only a few feet longer than ours, the Roman mile is shorter, and the Tuscan mile, as well as the Turkish mile, is 450 feet longer. The Swedish mile is 22,093 feet, and the Austrian mile is 25,037 feet in length.—Detroit News.

THEY WERE THE WATCH.

A number of English officers were sitting in a German restaurant in Cologne having a very good time for people who were away from home. They were struck by a rather lively conversation between the leader of the orchestra and several of its members. All of a sudden the orchestra began to play "Die Wacht am Rhein." Every one rose to his feet, while the officers, including the English, stood at attention until the last note had been played. The leader was so surprised that he came down to the English officers and began the following conversation: "Gentlemen, may I ask you a question?" "Go ahead!" "Did you recognize the piece we just played?" "Sure!" "Do you know that was 'Die Wacht am Rhein'?" "Why, certainly," said one of the Englishmen, raising his voice so as to be heard all over the hall; "but that's all right. Die Wacht am Rhein—that's us."

SUCH IS LIFE.

It was in the good old days, when the little red schoolhouse frequently resounded with the "thwack" of the birch rod, that the master discovered that some boy of the upper class had committed a fearful crime against the dignity of the master.

"I'll thrash the entire class if some one doesn't tell me who did that!" the teacher threatened, and as the information was not forthcoming proceeded to keep his word, until but one lad remained.

"If you will tell me who it was, I'll let you off," the teacher then offered.

"All right, sir. It was I," the boy responded.

SOCIAL DISTINCTION

Golfer—Anyone ahead of us, caddy?
Caddy—Yes, sir; a gentleman with a caddy, and a man carryin' fur himself.

THE AMATEUR FARMER.

"What's become of Wombat, the author?"

"He bought a farm."

"And now?"

"He's writing a series of articles about his life as a farmer."

"Comedy or tragedy?"—Exchange.

SKILLED PROSPECTOR.

"So our dentist friend has purchased a mining prospect?"

"Yes."

"Well, he ought to win out. That fellow can hit a pay streak with the least drilling of anybody I know."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

GOOD MANAGEMENT.

"Our ward leader expects to corral all the feminine votes in the primary."

"How is he going to manage it?"

"He has caused it to get all around that all the polling places are to have mirrors in 'em."
